Concert venue | Cadogan Hall

Cadogan Hall is a 953-seat-capacity concert hall on Sloane Terrace in Chelsea, within the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea in London.

Located in the centre of London, it is renowned for its elegant architecture and exceptional acoustics.

Since 2019, Vox Anima London has been using this prestigious venue to host its annual concert residencies, bringing together singers and audiences from around the world in one of London's most celebrated performance spaces.

Rehearsal venue | St Mary-le-Bow

Originally founded in the 11th century, St Mary-le-Bow has stood at the heart of the City of London for nearly 1,000 years. The name "le-Bow" comes from the Norman arches ("bows") that were an unusual architectural feature at the time.

The church was rebuilt by Sir Christopher Wren after the Great Fire of London 1966 and lovingly restored following the Blitz, the church is famed for its iconic Bow Bells, beautiful Baroque architecture, and exceptional acoustics.
